We the Seniors of Arthur High School dedicate this, our Second Year Book, to Mr. Garlan F. Bailey. He came to Arthur School as a stranger to work with us and our community. He has accomplished many things here in our small town. We hope with all our hearts he will carry with him our love and best wishes where ever he goes. He has made our school one of the best since he has been with us. This we will cherish forever. We wish him happiness, and success in all he undertakes.

Now we dedicate this Year Book.

CLASS HISTORY

In the year of 1938, we came to Arthur School as little strangers. This was the real beginning of our education. Miss Ebberson was our first teacher and she taught us the way to behave and how to get along with our fellow students. Miss Allen, Miss Parker, and Miss Thomason were our next teachers. They were very helpful in guiding us to reach our goals.

When we were in the fifth grade we learned that we must get all of our homework in. Miss Woodward was our teacher and she really knew how to handle a yard-stick. Some one was whipped most everyday.

Miss Pace, Miss White, Mrs. Fry, Mrs. Clark, Mrs. Forrest, Mrs. Hollowell, and Miss Humbles had the pleasure of teaching us in our last years of grammar school, and decided wheather or not we were capable of entering high school.

As Freshmen, we learned the way to study, and we had plenty of studying to do. In the 9th grade we had the hardest courses in high school. Mr. Cashwell, Mrs. Hendrix, and Mrs. McArthur were our advisors. We had a hard time that year with Mr. World History, Mrs. Biology, and Master Algebra.

Our Sophomore year was not so dull, because Bobby Bennett joined our class. Mrs. Hendrix and Mr. Cashwell came back for another year with us. Mrs. Pendleton left the eighth grade and came into high school to teach us French and English.

Our Junior year we had only fourteen classmates. We had all kinds of fun making money for our Junior-Senior Banquet. Our class presented a "Negro Womanless Wedding." We were overwhelmed with compliments of the play. Mr. Bailey, Mr. Tew and Mrs. Tucker joined us this year and we really enjoyed typing under Mr. Tew and U.S. History under Mr. Bailey. Some of us juniors took part in the senior play which was a thrilling success, thanks to the assistance of Mrs. Tucker.

Oboy! The year that we thought would never come is here. Yes, Seniors at last! This year was full of fun and excitement. Mr. Bailey was back with us again and we love every inch of him. With their kindness and patience; Mr. Zeh, Mrs. Woods, and Mrs. Tew have also helped us to complete this, our last year. We had much fun asking for ads to put in our yearbook, because it is bigger and better than before. This year, we have only eleven classmates, and we were always ready to help with any little thing that Mr. Bailey asked us to do. Our Senior Play was every thing that we expected it to be.

Now, as Seniors, when we think back over our twelve years journey on the road to graduation, we begin to realize that soon it will be over to remain just a memory - a memory which will live on, as a burning ember.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We, the graduates of '50 are proud that we have been able to complete, successfully, our twelve years here at Arthur High School, but we are not too fond by the nearness of the time when we shall have to say good-bye. Some of us will continue our studies in higher fields; while others will face the future and make the best of it, thankful for the education received here in Bellarthur. Now we realize that we shall have to leave, and accordingly we wish to leave to our successors those qualities that have guided us to become Seniors and to complete our Senior year.

Article I

To our parents and friends, we leave our sincere thanks for their part in helping us to get this far up the path of life. Except for their work, sacrifices and love we would still be far behind in our young lives.

Article II

To our principal and teachers, we leave our thanks and love for their patience and wisdom in leading us over the "rough places" of our youth.

Article III

To our successors, The Juniors, we leave our willingness to "get ahead", our ability to enjoy life educationally, and the privilege to continue their studies under the same instructions that we were taught.

Article IV

I, Frances Crawford, leave my well-behavior and politeness to the Junior class, and my guard position on the basketball team to Virginia Dunn.

I, Virginia Crawford, leave my ability to play basketball and going to a show on a date to Louise Tyson.

I, Alma Daniels, leave my pretty eyes and my quietness to Joan Tyson and my ability to use make-up to Bobby Jean Nanny.

I, Henry Dunn, leave my ability to get a date at any time to Glenn Strickland, and my good behavior to Weldon McLawhorn.

I, Bill Erwin, leave my ability to date regularly and my popularity to Becharles Anderson.

I, James Gurganus, leave my ability to date a good-looking girl to Sidney Allen and my brown and white shoes to Mr. Zeh.

I, Oscar Hedges, leave my scholastic record to Vernon Nichols and my ability to leave other people alone to Deanie Vandiford.

I, Ellen Lloyd leave my dependability, trustworthiness, and guidance to Peggie Heath, and my quick temper to Mattie Pearl Rhodes.

I, Ardeen McLawhorn leave my guard position on the basketball team and my popularity to Trilby Lee Smith.

I, Harper Rasberry, leave my ability to drive anything on wheels to Weldon McLawhorn, and my wittiness to Robert Crawford.

I, Roland Young, leave my good grades and my ability to pay attention on class to Larry Lewis.

Article V

To everyone - parents, faculty members, friends, and fellow-students, we leave our love to each of you and with all our heart we sincerely hope that you will be happy through all the years of your lives.

We now appoint Mr. Garlan Bailey chief executor of this, our last will and testament.

CLASS PROPHECY

The sun rises again over the modern, hustling little city of Bellarthur - truly a picture of progress and prosperity. Let's look in on the graduates of 1950, for they helped to make it so.

See that imposing structure across the street? That's the First National Bank of Bellarthur, and there's the president going in the door now. Who would have thought that Harper Rasberry would have made the grade and become a bank president?

Ah! What a lovely lady that is walking down the street. One can tell at a glance that she is a business woman, and successful too. Why it's Ellen Lloyd!

Above the noise of the busy street can be heard another sound. The roar of the motors of a large passenger plane fills the air. The plane is one of many belonging to Pan-American Airways, which has a branch in Bellarthur. President of this local branch is none other than our old classmate Roland Young.

That's a shiney new patrol car Cpl. Bill Erwin is driving. We understand that Bill has a fine record in Highway Patrol work. Criminals had better watch out when he gets on their trail.

In case you're interested the new patrol car we spoke of came from Auto Sales Co., which is owned and operated by James Gurganus. He is justly proud of the company's good name and large volume of business it does.

As we make our way along the crowded streets, we come to the hospital. It is a great asset to the vicinity, and our own Ardeen McLawhorn is superintendent of nurses here. Her husband cares for the children.

Working here, also is Alma Daniels who has won wide acclaim for her outstanding work in the nursing profession.

But Frances Crawford's achievements will not be overshadowed by anyone else's. She is a famous dietitian and has her headquarters here.

A taxi pulls up to the curb in front of a fashionable restaurant. Out steps Adm. Henry Dunn dressed in the uniform of the Navy, and escorting a beautiful blonde.

Let us walk on till we come to a familiar landmark - one which we all love and cherish, Arthur High School. Although it has been remodeled and has all the facilities of a modern school, it still looks familiar. Virginia Crawford is the basketball coach now and they have a championship team.

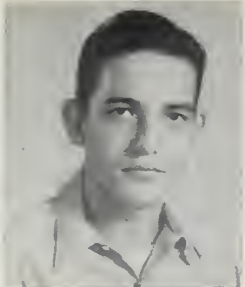

And last, but not least, there's Oscar Hodges who lives in a small house in the suburbs. He is a professional writer and world traveler. He expects to publish another book soon, which is an account of his travels in China.

Well, we have seen what the graduates of '50 are doing. Now in 1960, we have tangible evidence that those graduates built their careers and lives upon solid foundations. Bravo! Three cheers for the graduates of '50.

HONORS

THE GRADUATES OF 1949. "They are gone but not forgotten." They are from left to right: Louis Holloway, who is now helping his Mother work on the farm near Ballards X Roads; Elizabeth Crawford, who is now continuing her education at Pfeiffers college - her field is Religious Education; Sarah Lewis; soon will become a housewife; Barbara Jean Mozingo who is at Atlantic Christain College; Durward Tyson, who is also at Atlantic Christain College.

We are glad to know that these Graduates are succeeding at their work. The Seniors of 1950 wishes to extend their congratulations to you, and they also hope you the best of luck.
